

First Sunday after Pentecost ~ The Holy Trinity

June 16, 2019

THEME: The mystery of the Trinity comforts all believers of their salvation.

HYMN 194: "Oh, that I Had a Thousand Voices"

SERVICE OF THE WORD – Page 38

PRAYER OF THE DAY: Almighty God and Father, dwelling in majesty and mystery, filling and renewing all creation by your eternal Spirit, and manifesting your saving grace through our Lord Jesus Christ: in mercy cleanse our hearts and lips that, free from doubt and fear, we may ever worship you, one true immortal God, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, living and reigning, now and forever.

FIRST LESSON: Numbers 6:22-27

The Lord instructed Moses to put His blessing upon the Israelites in a threefold benediction which we still use in our service today.

6:22 The LORD said to Moses, 23 "Tell Aaron and his sons, 'This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

24 "The LORD bless you and keep you;

25 the LORD make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you;

26 the LORD turn his face toward you and give you peace.'"

27 "So they will put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them."

PSALM OF THE DAY: Psalm 150 (p.122) (sung in unison)

The glorious nature of our Triune God, and "the acts of power" he has accomplished for our salvation, will inspire our endless praise.

SECOND LESSON: Romans 5:1-5 (sermon text)

God the Father justifies us through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. This faith is planted in our hearts by the Holy Spirit. The completeness of our salvation worked by the Triune God gives us every reason for hope. We now rejoice in that hope.

5:1 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; 4 perseverance, character; and character, hope. 5 And hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.

VERSE OF THE DAY: Alleluia. Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory. Alleluia. (Isaiah 6:3b NIV)

THE HOLY GOSPEL: John 16:12-15 (please stand)

Jesus comforts his disciples with the fact that the Holy Spirit would lead them into the full truth of salvation and implant Jesus in their hearts to make them right with the Father. This was, and still is how the Trinity brings salvation to people today.

16:12 "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. 13 But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. 14 He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. 15 All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you."

HYMN 195: "Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty"

SERMON THEME: All the Glory Goes to Our Triune God

1. To the Father who justified us

2. To the Son who redeemed us

3. To the Holy Spirit who calls us to faith
